PARENTS' NIGHT.

High School Students Entertain Many Visitors With Pleasing Exercises.

Parents' night at Putnam High school Monday evening attracted to the institution the fathers and mothers of many of the students and this was very pleasing to Principal John 8. Backus, members of the school faculty and members of the school committee. It is the desire of those in direct charge of the school and those having supervision of it that the parents show a constant interest in the school and its work. The entertainment arranged for the parents contained many pleasing features. It was opened at 7 o'clock, with a steropticon lecture, conducted by the pupils, with Mexico as the subject. A French play, Un Cousin de Passage, in one act was pleasingly presented by the third year pleasingly presented by the third year French students. Loss at Perkins' Summer Home $1000 It is reported that silverware and other property of a total value of $1,000 was taken from the Perkins country home at Pomfret when it was entered by burglars a few days ago. From occurrences of the past few weeks there is a strong reason for sus-pecting that a series of raids such as was conducted a few winters ago when the Bradley residence and the homes of other prominent summer residents of Pomfret were ransacked is under-way. Late this winter the attention way. Late this winter the attention of the state police was called to certain robberles that occurred in Fomfret homes that were closed for the cold weather season. An investigation was made and some evidence found that tended to indicate that the clues would lead to something of importance but this did not prove to be the case. Now comes the break at the Perkins' home and strengthens the belief that a gang of crooks is engaged in mak-ing periodical raids at the homes of members of the summer colony,
